Dear Mr. Manley:

In reply to your letter of June 29, in answer to mine, we regret very much that after setting Sunday, July 14 aside for the game you are not in a position to take advantage of that open Sunday.

I do not quite understand that "certain paragraph" you mention, as we in Brooklyn have always cooperated with you in every way, and I know there is no reflection on us whatsoever.

If at any time there is anything at all that we can do, do not hesitate to call on me.

Very truly yours,

JFC:rm
